Work / Life Balance Index 2013

TeamViewer's annual survey Shows that most Americans will be working during vacation this year.

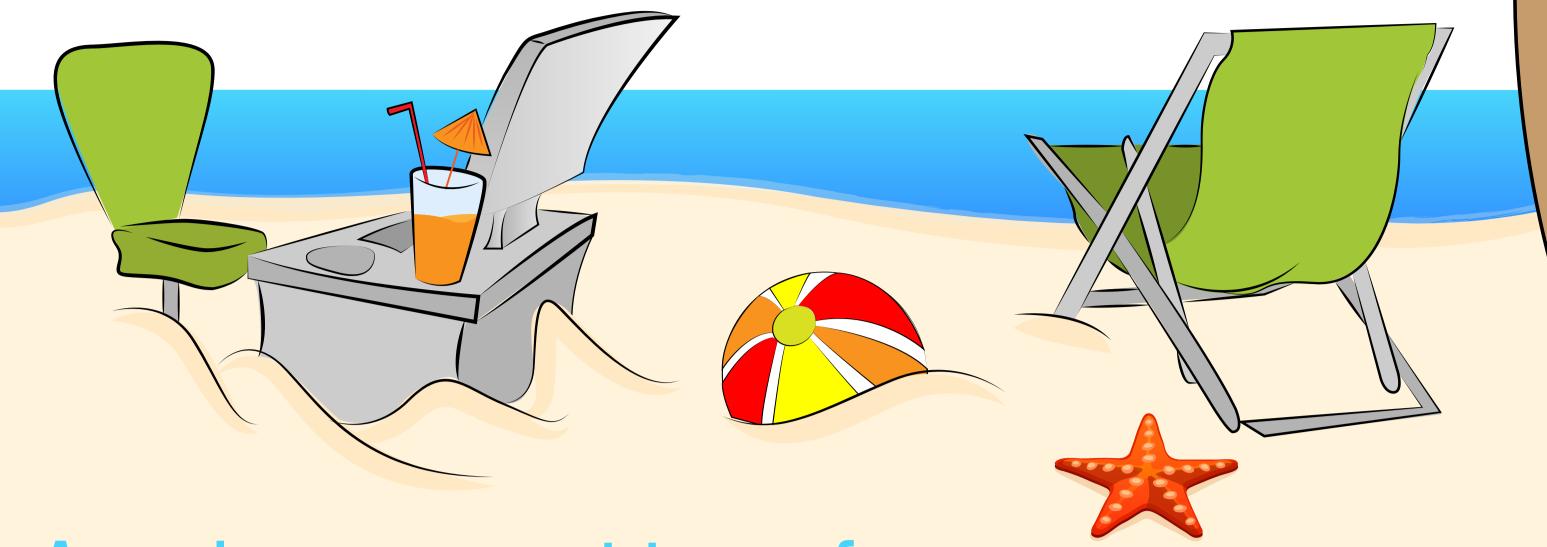

52%

of employed vacationers say they will work during vacation in 2013

VS.

of employed Americans said they would work during vacation in 2012

Americans expect to perform work-related tasks during vacation such as:

30% Receiving workrelated calls

24% Receiving workrelated text messages 32% Wanting workrelated access to a document on work/home computer

20% Being asked to do work by a boss, client or colleague vacation

69% say they will bring a work-capable device with them on vacation

61% plan to bring up to three such devices

The most popular devices when working during vacation:

Americans react in the following ways when asked to work during vacation:

Do the work, but not happily	34%
Feel that my boss doesn't respect my time	29%
Worry about the boundaries of my personal life	24%
I would say no	22%
Be happy to do the work	14%
I would turn off my devices and ignore it altogether	13%
I would pretend I didn't see the incoming message, text, etc.	11%
Update resume	6%
Quit job	2%

This survey was conducted online within the United States by Harris Interactive on behalf of TeamViewer from June 25-27, 2013 among 1,160 adults ages 18 and older.

